Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Working women constitute over one-half of the Nation's work force and are constantly striving to serve their communities, their states and their nation in civic and cultural programs; and,

WHEREAS, Major goals of Business and Professional Women are to help create work equity for business women through the study of social, educational, economic and political problems; to help them be of greater service to their community; and to strengthen the network of working women throughout the state; and,

WHEREAS, Darlene Gage has been an active member in the Pierre/Ft. Pierre community, has served on the Board of Directors for the Pierre YMCA, and has received an award for Journalism in Public Relations; and,

WHEREAS, Darlene Gage is being recognized as the Woman of Achievement for the Pierre/Ft. Pierre area by the Business and Professional Women; and,

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and proper for the Governor of South Dakota to recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, June 5, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. LECKEY, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
